terms of trying to apply what is generally known as a national standard to it. I'd ask you to adopt my amendment.

PRESIDENT: The question is the adoption of Senator Lewis' amendment. Record your vote. Have you voted? Record.

SENATOR F. LEWIS: Mr. Chairman.

PRESIDENT: Senator Lewis.

SENATOR F. LEWIS: I'd ask for a Call of the House. I'm affraid we're . . .

PRESIDENT: The question is shall the House go under Call. Record your vote. Record.

CLERK: 24 ayes, 3 nays to go under Call.

PRESIDENT: The House is under Call. All members please take your chairs and record your presence. Would you record your presence please. Senator Swigart, Senator Mahoney. Take votes Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Senator Moylan voting aye. Senator Rasmussen voting aye. Senator Mahoney changing from no to aye.

PRESIDENT: Chair recognizes Senator Frank Lewis.

SENATOR CAVANAUGH: Wait a minute.

PRESIDENT: He put . . . alright. The entire membership isn't here. The Chair will recognize the party who put the House under Call, otherwise going under Call doesn't mean much.

SENATOR CAVANAUGH: Only the person moving for the Call can raise the Call?

PRESIDENT: Of if, in the opinion of the Clerk and the Chair, the reported membership is in their chairs, yes.

SENATOR CAVANAUGH: The ruling of the Chair will be that only the person making . . . moving for the Call can then move to raise the Call?

PRESIDENT: Anyone can if the unexcused membership is present, otherwise it means nothing. In this instance Senator Frank Lewis put it under Call to get a required vote. It's his time then to take it out from under Call. Senator Frank Lewis.

SENATOR F. LEWIS: Knowing what I'm doing full well I move to raise the Call.

PRESIDENT: The question is shall the Call be raised. Record your vote. Record. Senator DeCamp.

CLERK: 27 ayes, 0 nays.
